

DR. ALOK TRIVEDI

CEO, Keynote Speaker & Author

Dr. Rewire is a media personality and expert in health and human behavior. He has studied the human body and peak performance for the last 25 years and built one of the largest peak performance clinics in the world. Combining his expertise as a doctor and human behavior, he has created Dr. Rewire.

Dr. Rewire is a behavior modification system using neurology and psychology to maximize performance. His tools are based on science and help entrepreneurs increase their income 3000% in a year and helps professional athletes win gold medals.

Dr. Rewire helps people who are stuck cut the B.S., get to the source and break free in order to get the top line results they are looking for. He helps corporate leaders and sales teams to create an extreme engagement culture using a combination of processes that inspire teams to drive sales and increase profit.

Dr. Rewire is the author of the book Chasing Success: Lessons in Aligned Performance and Wired For Wealth. He has been featured on CBS, NBC, Fox News, CTV News Canada, FHM, Global News and many more.

His clients include Mobiroo International, Draftmore North America, UPS stores, Primerica and professional athletes. He is frequently asked to share his perspectives on health and human behavior in the media and with many different business leaders internationally.
